

CAREY L. HALSEY

18332 Chicago Avenue
Lansing, Illinois 60438

Business: 312-893-7182
Residence: 708-474-1930

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science

Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, Illinois, 1976

Major: Child Development/Early Childhood Education

Minor: Psychology

Master of Science in Education

Wheelock College, Boston, Massachusetts, 1979

Program: Infant-Toddler Behavior and Development

Doctoral studies

Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, Illinois 1984-85, 1990

Erikson Institute, Chicago, Illinois, 1995-96

CURRENT APPOINTMENT

- 2008-present     Senior Instructor, Erikson Institute, Chicago Illinois.
- Teach a variety of graduate level courses related to Early Childhood Development, both on campus and online.
  - Provide professional development workshops on variety of topics related to infant development and assessment

PREVIOUS POSITIONS

- 2006-2008     Early Childhood Consultant and Trainer, Integrated Assessment Program, Erikson Institute/Illinois Department of Children and Family Services, Chicago, Illinois.
- Provided state wide training in early childhood developmental screening and assessment
  - Provided direct consultation in the field and in case conferences regarding very early child development and family issues in child welfare
- 2003-2008     Adjunct Instructor
Erikson Institute, Chicago, Illinois.
- Taught graduate level courses in Physical Growth and Development and Infant-Toddler Behavior and Development
  - Provided professional development workshops on variety of topics related to infant development and assessment

- 1982-2006      Child Development Specialist and Instructor of Pediatrics, Loyola University Stritch School of Medicine and Medical Center, Maywood, Illinois
- Primary faculty for required and elective resident rotations in Developmental/Behavioral Pediatrics. Faculty sponsor for Senior Resident research projects
  - Medical student lecturer in pediatrics and developmental biology
  - Developmental diagnostician for children birth-5 years, 1982-2001
  - Principal investigator of a longitudinal study of extremely low birth weight infants, 1984-1993
  - Primary facilitator for weekly NICU family support and education group and staff liaison to Loyola Regional Parents Association, 1984-1991
  - Associate Project Director for government funded study of premature infants, 1982-85. Responsible for budget, annual report, data collection, and staff supervision
- 1990-1992      Lecturer, The Cook County Graduate School of Medicine, Chicago, Illinois
- 1987-1990      Instructor, Project LINKS, Graduate School of Special Education, Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, Illinois
- Project LINKS was a federally funded early intervention (0-2) personnel preparation grant.
  - Developed and taught two graduate courses ("Curriculum Planning for Handicapped Infants and Toddlers" and "Working with Parents of Handicapped Infants and Toddlers").
  - Provided on-site hospital practicum supervision and was the medical consultant/liaison for project.
- 1979-1982      Consultant, Developmental/Behavioral Pediatric Fellowship, Harvard Medical School, Boston, Massachusetts
- 1981              Research Assistant, "Health, Neurodevelopment and Delinquent Behavior in Adolescence," Children's Hospital Medical Center, Boston, Massachusetts. Melvin Levine, M.D., Principal Investigator
- 1980-1981      Research Assistant, "Harvard Infant Study," Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts. Jerome Kagan, Ph.D., Principal Investigator
- 1980              Instructor, Wheelock College, Boston, Massachusetts
- Student teacher supervision and course instructor
- 1979-1980      Research Assistant, "Premature Infant Development

Study”, Children's Hospital Medical Center, Boston, Massachusetts. T. Berry Brazelton, M.D., Principal Investigator

1978-1979 Graduate Assistant, Wheelock College Graduate School, Boston, Massachusetts

1977-1978 Head Teacher, Child Development Laboratory, Harper Community College, Palatine, Illinois

PUBLICATIONS

Halsey, C.L., Collin, M.F., Anderson, C.L. Extremely Low Birth Weight Children and Their Peers: A Comparison of School-Age Outcomes, ARCHIVES OF PEDIATRIC AND ADOLESCENT MEDICINE, 150; 790-794, 1996

Halsey, C. L., Collin, M.F., Anderson, C.L. Extremely Low Birth Weight Children and Their Peers: A Comparison of Preschool Performance, PEDIATRICS, 91; 807-811, 1993

Collin, M. F., Halsey, C.L., Anderson, C.L. Emerging Developmental Sequelae in the 'Normal' Extremely Low Birth Weight Infants, PEDIATRICS, 88; 115-120, 1991

Muraskus, J., Carlson, N., Halsey, C., Frederiksen, M, Sabbagha, R. Survival of a 280 g Infant, NEW ENGLAND JOURNAL OF MEDICINE, 324; 1598-99, May 30, 1991

Grigg-Damberger, M., Coker, S., Halsey, C., Anderson, C. Neonatal Burst Suppression: Its Developmental Significance in Klaus, M. and Fanaroff, eds, 1990 YEAR BOOK OF NEONATAL AND PERINATAL MEDICINE. Chicago: Mosby, 1990

INVITED NATIONAL PRESENTATIONS:

“Early Head Growth in Extremely Low Birth Weight Premies: Relationship to Later Educational Outcomes” AMBULATORY PEDIATRIC SOCIETY, New Orleans, Louisiana, May 1998.

"Beyond IQ: Predicting School Problems in Extremely Low Birth Weight Children" AMBULATORY PEDIATRIC SOCIETY, Washington, D.C., May 1997

"Differential Effects of Surfactant Therapy On Survival in the Extremely Low Birth Weight Infant: A White Male Advantage"

SOUTHERN PEDIATRIC SOCIETY, New Orleans, Louisiana,
February, 1997

"Extremely Low Birth Weight Premies and Their Peers: A Comparison of School Age Outcomes" SOCIETY FOR PEDIATRIC RESEARCH, San Diego, California, May, 1995

"Extremely Low Birth Weight Premies and Their Peers: A Comparison of Preschool Performance" SOCIETY FOR PEDIATRIC RESEARCH, Anaheim, California, May, 1990

"Emerging Developmental Sequelae in the 'Normal' Extremely Low Birth Weight Premie" SOCIETY FOR PEDIATRIC
RESEARCH, Washington, D.C., May, 1989

"Intraventricular Hemorrhage: Neurodevelopmental Outcome in the Second Year" FOURTH INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON INFANT STUDIES, New York, New York, April, 1984

"Infants in Families: Promoting Infant Development in a Variety of Settings" workshop leader, JOINT REGIONAL CONFERENCE OF THE NATIONAL CENTER FOR CLINICAL INFANT PROGRAMS AND ERIKSON INSTITUTE, Chicago, Illinois, June, 1983

"Parents Role in Rehabilitation of Their Handicapped Children: A Discussion of Parent-Child Interaction" NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF HANDICAPPED RESEARCH , Washington, D.C., April, 1983

SCHOLARLY and COMMITTEE EXPERIENCE

Journal Reviewer, PEDIATRICS, 1998-2006.

CHILD (Children's Health Includes Learning and Development)
Committee, Founding member, Loyola University, 1995-2006.

Pediatric Resident Curriculum Committee, Loyola University, 1992-1998.

Advisory Board, PROJECT LINKS, a federally funded early intervention personnel preparation grant, Northern Illinois University, 1987-1990.

GRANTS

Brazdziunas, D, Halsey, C. L. and Lattyak, L. Foster Child

Developmental Screening Program. Loyola University Medical Center Auxiliary Board, 1996-99, $50,000.

Collin, M.F. and Halsey, C.L. Longitudinal Outcome of Infants Born Less than 1000 Grams. March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation, Grant #12-207, 1988-90, $34,000.

Anderson, C.L. and Halsey, C.L. The Neurodevelopmental Outcome of Infants <1500 grams with Periventricular-Intraventricular Hemorrhages. The National Institute of Handicapped Research, Grant # G008006721. $350,000.

REFERENCES

available upon request