

NAEYC 2009

Building the culturally and academically relevant classroom library:
How to organize, what to select, where to look

Dr. Jane Fleming, Erikson Institute
Dr. Susan Catapano, University of North Carolina-Wilmington
November 21, 2009

Session Overview

- The importance of building a high-quality, culturally relevant collection
- Selecting high quality urban and multicultural children's literature
- Organizing, managing, and maintaining the classroom library

Selecting high quality multicultural children's literature

What do we know?

Brainstorm titles list – Realistic Fiction

picture books with characters of color

picture books with city settings

The well-stocked library

- Range of text types (narrative, expository, environmental)
- Range of formats (big books, picture books, wordless books, collections, class-made)
- Range of genres (concept books, realistic fiction, traditional tales, fantasy, poetry, information, etc.)
- Range of books appropriate for children at different levels of emergent/beginning literacy
- Range of selections reflecting the lives and experiences of children in our classrooms

What's so important about familiar texts?

- Emergent literacy skills/oral language and literacy
  - Concepts about print
  - Relating speech to print
- Familiar schema for story comprehension
- Maintaining interest and motivation
- Seeing self, family, community represented and valued
- Authors and illustrators like me

Characteristics of high quality picture books: Realistic fiction

General characteristics

- Cover
- Character
- Plot
- Theme
- Language
- Illustrations

Urban-specific characteristics

- Accuracy of characters
- Familiar Context
- Familiar Language
- Authentic Urban Scenery
- Diversity of Characterization
- Diversity of Setting

(see handout for details)

Urban Children's Literature

Urban-specific characteristics

- Accuracy of characters
- Familiar Context
- Familiar Language
- Authentic Urban Scenery
- Diversity of Characterization
- Diversity of Setting

Accuracy of characters

but I don't know exactly what they mean.
"What does 'brave' mean, Daddy?" I ask.
"It just means that you're not afraid," Daddy says.
When we sit down, I practice being brave.

Familiar Context

Familiar Language

Today we're going to the park.
"El parque es lindo," says Abuela.
I know what she means.
I think the park is beautiful too.

Authentic Urban Scenery

crossing basketball courts and no-netted hoops past the school,

Then they left.

Diversity of Characterization

Diversity of Setting

Selected Picture Book Recommendations – Realistic Fiction, Concept Books, Poetry

www.kidslikeus.org

Realistic Fiction

Concept Books

Poetry

Featured authors

Featured Illustrators

III. Building, organizing, and utilizing a high-quality classroom library

- Creating an inviting space
- Building a high-quality collection (where to get books)
- Organizing and labeling
- Management
- Check in/out systems
- Opening the classroom library
- Scheduling time
- Maintaining the library
- Generating interest – effective read alouds and book talks

Sharing ideas

Creating an inviting space

Building the collection: where to find books

Organization

Maintenance

Creating an inviting space

- Shelving, crates, bins in designated space
- Create comfortable space for 3-4 children
- Rug, pillows, other seating
- Stuffed animals, puppets, other props?

Comfortable space with soft items

Face forward, inviting displays

Where to get books?

- Books
- Furniture
- Other supplies

How many books?

- Minimum 10 per child (Fractor et al, 1993) in the collection
- You can have too many books
- Rotate books in and out
  - curriculum unit themes
  - student use
  - student growth

Less is more

Rotation bins

Organizing texts

- Create an appealing, inviting display
- Consider developmental level
- Sort out appropriate reading/viewing range
- Organize by
  - Format (big books, board books, picture books, wordless)
  - Topic/Type
- Complexity depends on developmental level

Book “gutter” for display

Labeling

- Developmentally appropriate labels
- Clip art and other visuals
- Label bins and books
- Key: the children know how books are displayed and why

Topic bins

Opening the library

- Observation first (organization, quality, etc.)
- Teach and practice the system (finding books of different types, check in/out, return and reshelving, etc.)
- Map or chart of library organization
- Selection strategy suggestions

Check in/out

Pros and cons

- traditional card pockets and catalog
- bulletin board with card/title holder
- reading log (title, author, topic)
- book place holders

Reshelving bin or placeholders

Book “hospital”

Suggestions

- make it easy
- goal is for children to use independently and responsibly
- use system that allows for monitoring selections

Tracking use

- Anecdotal observation
- Check-out log
- Conferencing around individual selections
- Sharing time (e.g., pick of the week)

Troubleshooting

- Practice makes perfect (guided and independent)
- Monitor the collection (assign jobs – reshelfer, bin checker, etc.)
- Brainstorm remedies with the class

Hands On Activities with Multicultural Children's Literature

Tan to Tamarind
Self-portraits

Isadora fairy tales/fables
Author study with paper cutting and collage

ABeCedarios/Opuestos
Dough animal carvings