

We can help make your graduate education affordable

Financial Aid Application Details

March 15 is the priority deadline to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at fafsa.ed.gov and become eligible for the maximum amount of Erikson Institute scholarships and student loans. The Erikson FAFSA code is G35103.

Students who are accepted into a degree or certificate program or are continuing at Erikson will be notified of their financial aid eligibility once all required documentation has been submitted. If you have questions or need help with the financial aid process, please contact us.

Financial Aid

Erikson Institute is committed to assisting student with financing their graduate education. Each year over 90% of Erikson students receive financial assistance in the form of scholarships or fellowships. Eligible students may also qualify for low-interest federal student loans to help cover tuition and living expenses.

Erikson is authorized to participate in a number of federal and state financial aid programs, and we also award close to $2 million in scholarships each year to students accepted to our degree and certificate programs. Based on your eligibility, you may also have access to the following sources of funding:

- Erikson scholarships – these are awards that you don't have to pay back
- Federal student loans
- Federal TEACH grants for teacher candidates
- State of Illinois MTI Scholarships for teacher candidates
- State of Illinois Gateway Scholarships
- External scholarships and grants (not funded by Erikson)

“It is my pleasure to help Erikson students understand how they can afford a graduate education. After a student has been accepted for admission and we have received the FASFA information, I send an aid letter within a week. I am available every day to answer questions and address financial aid concerns. Great student service is my mission.”
