

New Teacher Professional Development Series

2020–2021 School Year

Who

- Teachers in their first 3 years of teaching
- New teachers at former LLP partner schools, to support sustainability of practices
- Schools with high percentage of new teachers

Language and Literacy Partners will provide

- Cycles of professional development that target classroom management, PreK–3rd grade reading and writing, planning and implementation of effective teacher practices, and assessing children’s progress
- In-person and online support from LLP mentor
- CPDUs for attendance

Goals of the Series

- Support new teachers with a skilled LLP mentor
- Create a professional learning community of new teachers to support each other
- Time for problem solving with a consistent cohort of colleagues and LLP expert mentors
- Professional development on classroom management, disposition to teaching and learning with young children, understanding the foundations of learning to read and write, and implementing a balanced literacy framework appropriate to children’s age, grade, and cultural and language background

Learning Labs

Eight 2.5-hour in-person sessions across the school year

Online Support

- Coaching in-between sessions
- Peer support

One in-person site visit

Observation and feedback on practice

Pricing

$2,300 per teacher

Location

School site to be determined based on participating teachers

For more information, please contact:

Sue Mitra, EdD

Associate Director of Professional Development, Language and Literacy Partners
smitra@erikson.edu

Sarah Morrow, MM

Program Manager, Language and Literacy Partners
smorrow@erikson.edu

Gillian McNamee, PhD

Director, Language and Literacy Partners
gmcmnamee@erikson.edu

We are an IL-EMPOWER approved learning partner