

Erikson Institute

Library Assistant (Federal Work Study)

Erikson Institute, a graduate school in child development located in downtown Chicago, is seeking to hire a part-time Library Assistant. This position reports to the Access Services Librarian.

Roles and Responsibilities

The Edward Neisser Library houses a unique collection of approximately 20,000 volumes that support the social work, child development and early childhood education curricula at the Institute.

The Library Assistant is responsible for staffing the Circulation/Information Desk during assigned shifts and assisting with the general functions of the Edward Neisser Library. This includes responding to library users' questions, circulating library materials, and basic technology troubleshooting. This position also opens and closes the library according to established procedures as necessary.

The Library Assistant is also responsible for assisting with collection maintenance by processing new material, shelving returned material, and conducting shelf-reading and inventory as assigned. Special projects may also be assigned including - but not limited to - scanning library material, creating displays and signage, and reorganizing library collections.

Essential Duties

- Respond to general inquiries as presented in-person, over the phone, and via email
- Check in and out library materials
- Fulfill holds on library materials
- Assist users with locating library materials and using library technology
- Shelf materials according to procedure
- Process library materials for inclusion
- Open and/or close the library according to procedure
- Other duties as assigned

Erikson Institute

Required Qualifications

- Must be a matriculated or current Erikson student
- Some work experience involving attention to detail and/or customer service
