Erikson degrees and certificates often allow you to earn additional credentials or endorsements to help demonstrate your expertise and expand your earning potential. The path to earn these credentials is often simplified and more direct due to Erikson's academic rigor and well-rounded curriculum.

Pursuing credentials varies by degree program and concentration. The Illinois State Board of Education and Illinois Gateways to Opportunity are just two of the organizations granting these optional enhancements. The requirements, application process, timing and related costs may vary.

“Erikson graduates are prepared to work in the field. They are confident and passionate about the work.”

Andria Goss, MS, MSW
Erikson Institute Associate
Vice President of Clinical and Community Services

We Can Help

Pursuing your graduate studies is an important investment in your career and personal future. Erikson participates in a number of federal and state financial aid programs. Additionally, Erikson awards over $2 million in scholarships and grants each year. Scholarships are awarded for the entirety of the program. Scholarship and grant eligibility is contingent upon admission and completion of a FASFA. Additional criteria may apply. For the most up to date information on scholarships and financial aid, visit www.erikson.edu/finaid. Our dedicated financial aid staff can help you learn about the options available to you.
